In a change to its timetable in 2022 regarding the days of the week, FENSTERBAU FRONTALE will run from Tuesday 29 March to Friday 1 April. As usual it will be held at the same time as HOLZ-HANDWERK.

Due to the coronavirus crisis, the combined trade fair could not take place in March 2020. Elke Harreiss, Director of FENSTERBAU FRONTALE, is grateful for the solidarity shown by the sector and is now looking to the future: "We very much appreciate the collaborative dialogue with our exhibitors during these challenging times, especially as our industry gathering ultimately could not take place this year. But we are sure that in future the need for information and dialogue will be greater than ever. We would like to shape the future together with the industry and are fully committed to ensuring that FENSTERBAU FRONTALE 2022 will once again provide a platform to reunite the sector and allow business relationships to be reinforced. We look forward to welcoming exhibitors who wish to be part of this world-leading fair!"
