EUROPEAN HEAT PUMP SUMMIT – MEET THE INDUSTRY IN NUREMBERG!

More and more attention is being paid to the role of heat pumps in sustainable energy systems. This key technology excels with innovative application possibilities and high potential for development, but at the same time faces a number of major challenges.

In October 2019, all eyes in the European heat pump industry will once again be on Nuremberg, as experts in research and practical applications gather for network and discussion. Don't miss out – take advantage of this opportunity and present your company in the Foyer-Expo or as a sponsor!

THE RIGHT CONCEPT: FOYER-EXPO

A POWERFUL COMMUNICATION PACKAGE

Put your company on display in a prominent location: As an exhibitor in the foyer of the 2019 European Heat Pump Summit, you will be at the centre of attention. Benefit from interesting conversations with congress participants and present your product solutions for heat pumps at your own information booth. Book your stand now!

THE ALTERNATIVE: SPONSORING

As an alternative or in addition to participation in the Foyer-Expo, you can advertise your company as a sponsor of the event. We offer three basic sponsoring packages with tailor-made services here, which would thrust your company into the limelight brilliantly. Of course, you can also choose to be one of the exclusive sponsors of the event. Book your desired package right away!
