

Important deadlines and information:

- The speaker submit his/her preliminary presentation (PowerPoint) no later than 12.10.2023 and the final presentation (PowerPoint) no later than 20.10.2023. The corresponding template will be sent in due time.
- If the speaker withdraw his/her lecture after 19.09.2023, a processing fee of EUR 250 will be charged by the organizer.
- The speaker gives the organizer permission to record his/her presentation, including the slides or audiovisual formats used, and to distribute the recordings online on the event's website, on the corresponding streaming page and on YouTube, thus making them available to the public. The speaker confirms that media used in the presentation (e.g. images, films, language, music) are not subject to third-party rights and/or may be used free of charge on www.hp-summit.de/en and the corresponding streaming site as well as on YouTube.

If the presentation includes third party content that is protected by copyright, the speaker must obtain the necessary supporting documents proving that they have permission to use the material in their presentation and must submit this documentation on request. The speaker undertakes to indemnify the organiser against third party claims of all kinds resulting from an infringement of commercial property rights and/or copyrights in their presentation. The indemnity obligation also includes the obligation to fully indemnify the organiser against legal defence costs (e.g. court costs and legal fees). You can object to the promotional use of our data by NürnbergMesse GmbH at any time by letter (NürnbergMesse GmbH, Data Protection, Messezentrum, 90471 Nuremberg) or e-mail (data@nuernbergmesse.de). You will find information relevant to data protection, and especially your rights, at: www.hp-summit.de/dataprotection.