SUSTAINABLY INNOVATIVE – BE INSPIRED BY BIOFACH

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a large, brightly lit trade show hall. In the foreground, a woman in a brown coat is looking at a display of organic food products on a white table. A man in a dark jacket is walking towards her. In the background, other visitors are seen walking through the aisles, and various trade show booths with colorful banners and product displays are visible. The floor is covered with a green carpet.

Look forward to a face-to-face gathering with the entire sector in Nuremberg! In 2022, the “BIOFACH experience” will be enhanced by various digital features.

We in the BIOFACH team are already working with heart and soul to bring you exciting networking, unique variety of products and numerous innovations and trends on site in 2022 – with a corresponding hygiene concept of course.

Grab the chance to be part of this international gathering of the organic food community and book your stand for BIOFACH 2022.

WHY YOU SHOULD ABSOLUTELY NOT MISS BIOFACH 2022

- International dialogue among all industry players: BIOFACH is the No. 1 venue for personal interaction between members of the international organic food community. Nowhere else does the whole spectrum of industry stakeholders come together in a comparable way.
- The parallel BIOFACH Congress offers networking and knowledge transfer at expert level.
- Pioneering and innovative: The new event concept combines the established format of the physical BIOFACH exhibition with the advantages of the digital environment.
- Calibre of visitors: As an exhibitor at this strictly trade-only event, you will encounter only suitably credentialed international visitors from the retail and catering segments, for example, as well as media representatives, other influencers, and policymakers.
- Experience and discover: At the venue you can look forward to numerous special shows, e.g., for new products, start-ups and newcomers.
- Inspiration: BIOFACH is your destination for trends, innovations and new products.

BIOFACH is part of a strong trade fair community, that networks supply and demand around the globe, the BIOFACH World.
