

Site and Use Regulations of NürnbergMesse GmbH As of July 2019

These site regulations apply to the entire grounds of Nürnberg Messe GmbH (referred to hereinafter as "NürnbergMesse"), including all buildings and open areas (referred to hereinafter as the "exhibition grounds"). NürnbergMesse exercises the domiciliary rights along with the respective event organiser. The agreements made additionally with exhibitors, service partners, etc., remain unaffected.

1. Domiciliary rights

1.1. NürnbergMesse exercises the sole domiciliary rights to the rented object and site unless the tenant is entitled to these rights by act of law. The justified rights of the tenant shall be taken into account when exercising domiciliary rights.

1.2. The domiciliary rights with respect to the tenant and all third parties shall be exercised by personnel appointed by NürnbergMesse, whose instructions must be followed without exception and who are to be granted access to the rental object at all times. The instructions of the inspection staff must be followed.

1.3. NürnbergMesse is authorised to expel anyone from the exhibition grounds who violates the site regulations or exhibits disturbing behaviour, withdraw their admission tickets without compensation, and have their vehicles towed away at the owner's cost and risk.

1.4. NürnbergMesse has the right to inspect the storage compartments of vehicles and receptacles carried by persons, if required.

1.5. In case of theft of exhibits, the relevant person will be expelled from the site. The police will be informed. However, NürnbergMesse reserves the right to exercise its right to detain the relevant person on the exhibition grounds until the person's identity is established by the police.

1.6. The exhibition grounds may be entered on foot or in a vehicle only by persons with valid access credentials (employee IDs, service partner IDs, event-specific admission tickets, assembly and disassembly IDs) at the established times. Children under 16 years of age may enter the exhibition grounds only in the company of supervising adults unless another arrangement is made for a specific event. Visitors to the event must leave the exhibition grounds at the end of the daily event hours.

1.7 The instructions of the appointed event director, event equipment director and security manager must be followed without exception.

2. Building facilities

Technical facilities may only be operated by the personnel of NürnbergMesse or its service partners; this applies also to connections to the lighting or power network and water installations, for example.

3. Changes/ installations

The tenant is financially responsible for all changes, installations and decorations made by the tenant. The tenant is also responsible for the costs for restoration of the original condition. Structures must comply with the construction and fire safety regulations.

The use of adhesives and nails to mount objects on the walls is prohibited.

The floor must be handled with care. The mounting of objects on the side walls, especially guardrails, must be done by the service partners of NürnbergMesse, as a general rule. Materials made available by the lessor must be returned in good order and condition. The tenant shall be obligated to pay compensation for damage to walls, floors and rented materials.

4. Official regulations

4.1. Only low-flammable materials (DIN 4102) or non-flammable materials may be used to decorate the event. Decorations that are used repeatedly must be checked again to verify their low flammability and retreated if necessary. The tenant shall be obligated to prove the low flammability or non-flammability of decorations. The tenant shall be obligated to immediately remove flammable materials.

4.2. Packaging materials, paper and other highly flammable materials may not be stored in stands and walkways.

4.3. The tenant must comply with all official requirements and regulations. Express reference is made to compliance with legal regulations, youth protection law, trade law, regulations for places of assembly, etc.

4.4. No flammable liquids or the like may be processed or stored in the special rooms provided with sinks for use by painters.

5. Animals

Animals may not be brought into the halls and rooms during events.

Seeing-eye dogs are exempted from this prohibition.

6. Smoking ban

Smoking is generally banned on the entire exhibition grounds. Smoking is only permitted in specially designated areas.

7. Lost property / personal injuries and property damage

Objects found on the grounds must be presented to the information and service counters or the security personnel office. Any personal injuries or property damage must be reported immediately to the Facility Service.

8. Traffic regulations on the exhibition grounds

The official Road Traffic Regulations apply in the exhibition centre.

9. Liability

NürnbergMesse shall be liable only in cases of intent or gross negligence except in cases of violation of material contractual obligations and damage to life, body or health. The same applies for the liability of our vicarious agents.

10. Advertising

Advertising of any kind, the offering of goods and services of any kind, the acceptance of orders and the conducting of exhibition surveys outside of exhibition stands are not permitted without the express written consent of NürnbergMesse.

11. Photographing/ filming

A general photography and filming ban applies throughout the exhibition grounds. Photographing, filming and drawing of exhibited goods or exhibition stands on the grounds and in the halls is permitted only in justified exceptional cases and only with the written permission of NürnbergMesse.

In case of violations, the event organiser shall be entitled to confiscate drawings and exposed film material without compensation. This shall also apply when other film material (photographic material) are also affected.

12. Sale of guest tickets

Visitors and exhibitors are prohibited from selling guest tickets.

13. Weapons

Weapons and objects similar to weapons may not be brought into the Exhibition Centre Nuremberg unless they are exhibition objects.

14. Video surveillance

Reference is made to the fact that the exhibition grounds are under video surveillance for security reasons.

15. Issuance of exclusion orders

NürnbergMesse reserves the right to expel persons who violate the site regulations by issuing exclusion orders for the building and grounds and to have their vehicles towed away at the cost and risk of the vehicle driver or owner.

16. NürnbergMesse logo

The NürnbergMesse logo may not be removed from the microphones and lecterns provided to tenants and exhibitors.

17. Special regulations for Exhibition Halls 11.0 and 11.1 / Frankenhalle

The following regulations apply additionally for Exhibition Halls 11.0 and 11.1:

- Forklifts are generally banned in the Frankenhalle, Level 1 (Hall 11.1).
- The max. point load may not exceed 500 kg/m² (no point loads) on Level 1 of the Frankenhalle (Hall 11.1).
- Only so-called T or V double-sided tape may be used for pasting or laying in the Frankenhalle.
